

Kosei MUROTA

Consul-General of Japan in Los Angeles

Year of Birth: 1971

Birthplace: Osaka, Japan

Education:

March 1994 B.A. in Law, University of Tokyo

July 1997 Master of Philosophy in International Relations,
University of Cambridge

Career:

April 1994 Joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA)

August 2007 First Secretary, Embassy of Japan in the USA

August 2010 Executive Assistant to the Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs
Kenichiro Sasae

September 2012 Senior Foreign Policy Coordinator, Policy Coordination Division,
Foreign Policy Bureau, MOFA

February 2013 Counsellor, Office of Assistant Chief Cabinet Secretary, Cabinet
Secretariat (Office for establishing a National Security Council)

January 2014 Counsellor, National Security Secretariat

April 2016 Cabinet Counsellor (Director), National Security Secretariat

August 2018 Director, National Security Policy Division, Foreign Policy
Bureau, MOFA

September 2019 Director, Policy Coordination Division, Foreign Policy Bureau, MOFA

October 2021 Cabinet Councillor (Senior Director), National Security
Secretariat

July 2025 Consul-General, Consulate General of Japan in Los Angeles